NUMB. 4019

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1744.

Monday laſt arrived Three Mails from Holland, which brought the following Advices.

Moſcow, November 23.

HIS Imperial Highneſs the Duke is entirely recover'd, and looks better than he did before he was taken ill. The 6th of next Month is fixed for the Return of the Court of Petersbourg, and great Preparations are making for that Purpoſe. Her Imperial Majeſty has cauſed the Miniſter reſident here from [illegible] of Pruſſia, to be inform'd, that the Connections [illegible] the Saxon Court and this are of ſo ſtrong a [illegible] that, in caſe either the Hereditary Countries, or [illegible]al Dominions of his Poliſh Majeſty, ſhould be [illegible], the Czarina, on the firſt Inſtance, would find [illegible] under the Neceſſity of ſupporting that Monarch [illegible] her Force. The Difficulties that retarded the [illegible]ence of a French Miniſter at this Court being re[illegible] for the preſent, M. D'Allion is on the Road hi[illegible] The Count de Rofenberg will have an Audience [illegible]Empreſs To-morrow; and when that is over, a [illegible] will be diſpatch'd to Vienna, to deſire that the [illegible]ners may be ſet at Liberty, her Imperial Majeſty [illegible]erfectly ſatisfied with the Manner in which her [illegible]an Majeſty has explained herſelf on that Sub[illegible]

[illegible]hagen, December 8. On the 28th of laſt Month [illegible]ebrated here, with great Magnificence, the Anni[illegible] of her Majeſty's Birth-Day, who then enter'd [illegible] 45th Year of her Age; and on the 30th we ce[illegible], with the like Splendour, the Anniverſary of [illegible]eſty's Birth-Day, who then enter'd the 46th Year [illegible] Age. Baron Albendeil, the Hanoverian Miniſter, [illegible] ſeveral Conferences with our Miniſtry, in rela[illegible] the Demand he has made of the Contingent his [illegible] is bound to furniſh by Treaties, in caſe the Du[illegible] Bremen and Verden ſhould be attack'd; but, as [illegible] is not publickly known whether his Demand will [illegible]plied with, or not.

[illegible], November 24. Beſides thoſe that were for[illegible]mentioned, we have dug up 24 Pieces of Braſs [illegible], that were buried under one of the Works that [illegible]own up; and this Morning ſeven more have been [illegible]ered, that were buried at the Foot of a Baſtion. [illegible]rn by Deſerters, that the Rear Guard of the Army [illegible] Allies conſiſted of 2000 Men, of which 600 have [illegible]d in the Mountains, by Cold and Hunger. The [illegible] Cavalry that were to have taken Winter Quarters [illegible]guedoc, have had Orders to continue their March [illegible]; 30 Spaniſh Battalions are to quarter alſo in [illegible]e Duchy, and 14 Battalions are to march into the [illegible] of Nice; but all theſe make together but 8000 [illegible] The Count de Glimes is to command the Army, [illegible]room of the Marquis de las Minas. The Infant [illegible]Philip has written to their Catholick Majeſties, [illegible]e that he may be excuſed from going to Nice, [illegible] of which City diſagrees with him; and to obtain [illegible]o go, either to Chamberry, or if it might con[illegible]h the Views of their Majeſties, to return to Ma[illegible] This Morning we have made an End of cleanſing [illegible]e Ciſtern, in which we found an incredible Num[illegible] Bombs, Bullets, Grenades, and other Military [illegible] We have begun to repair the Fortifications of [illegible]ce; and it is ſaid, that the King intends to for[illegible]ezzo. We expect his Majeſty here after To[illegible]; and when he has viſited this Fortreſs, it is [illegible] he will return to the Neighbourhood of Turin, [illegible]t into the City, on account of the Small Pox, [illegible]rages there extremely. It is certain, that before [illegible]ring, the Entrances into Piedmont will be effect[illegible]ured.

[illegible]ia, November 25. The Auſtrian Army, after re[illegible] ſome Days in the Neighbourhood of this City, [illegible]ed their Route on the 22d for Peſaro; that of [illegible]which had continued for ſome Time at Foligno, [illegible]here on the 24th, and will continue the Purſuit [illegible]former, in order to pick up Stragglers; having [illegible] had great Succeſs in this Way. Yeſterday they [illegible]d 100 Auſtrians, with five Officers. Among the [illegible]s made at Nocera, there were 140 Spaniſh De[illegible] who have been all ſent out of the World, by the [illegible]or the Halter; the Count de Sora, and the Nea[illegible] Deſerters, have been ſent, under a ſtrong Guard, [illegible]e Abruzzo; where it is thought they will meet [illegible]he ſame Fate. It is believed, that both Armies [illegible]ke Winter Quarters again in Lombardy. Prince [illegible]auz has recalled the Troops that were ſent to [illegible] the Aſſiſtance of the King of Sardinia; and the Spaniards flatter themſelves, that great Reinforcements will be ſhortly ſent them from Spain.

Faro, November 24. His Britannick Majeſty's Ships the Rupert and Guernſey were off of this Port the 21ſt Inſtant. They are come from the Mediterranean, appointed by Admiral Rowley to ſerve on the Gibraltar Station; and, with the Frigats and Sloops that were on the ſame Station before, are to form a ſmall Squadron to cruize in theſe Seas; where the Rupert, Capt. Ambroſe, who is the Commodore, has already taken ſeveral Prizes of Value, as alſo ſunk a French Privateer from Cadiz, of 14 Guns, and 80 Men, 55 of whom were ſaved, and the reſt drowned.

Vienna, December 5. General Feſtetitz, who arrived here ſome Days ago, is ſet out to join the Army in Upper Sileſia; Count Rodolph Palfi, at the Head of the Firſt Column of the Inſurgents, has penetrated as far as Oppelem, in that Duchy; where he has had the good Luck to meet with the Cheſt of Contributions, which the Enemy's Forces had levied in our Dominions. Her Majeſty has lately publiſhed a Manifeſto, in which ſhe declares void the Ceſſion of Sileſia, by the Treaty of Breſlau; conjures the Inhabitants of that Country, and of the County of Glatz, to throw off the Pruſſian Yoke; and promiſes to ſupport them in their Endeavours, by ſending a numerous Army to their Reliefj which it is not at all doubted will have the deſired Effect, the rather, becauſe it is certain, that the Inhabitants of theſe Countries have been dreadfully oppreſſed ever ſince they fell under the Pruſſian Dominion. A Captain of Artillery, and 16 other Officers of the Train, ſet out from hence a few Days ago, and have been followed by ſeveral Hundred Horſes. They are gone to Prague, to bring away all the fine Artillery the Pruſſians were forced to leave behind them; his Majeſty's fine Suit of Tents, the Wines that were intended for his Table, the Tents and new Sabres deſign'd for five Regiments of Huſſars, the new Cloathing for 35 Battalions, and a great Part of the Baggage of his Army, &c. The Pruſſians in evacuating that City, left behind them 1100 Sick and Wounded, and carried 1900 with them; moſt of which have been found ſince lying in the Roads, dead of Cold and Hunger.

Extract of a private Letter from Leipzic, dated December 13.

'A few Days ago 16,000 Men of our Militia, had 'Orders to poſt themſelves on the Frontiers of Bohemia, 'to diſpute with the Pruſſians their Entrance into the 'Territories of the Electorate. According to our laſt 'Advices from the Army, which are dated but three 'Days ago, the Pruſſian Troops that were quarter'd in 'Prague had reach'd the Neighbourhood of Zittau, and 'were there incamped, intending to force a Paſſage thro' 'Luſatia. They are commanded by the Generals Einſiedel, 'Hache, Wartenſleben, and Siegel; but it is thought, 'they are at the End of their Journey; being ſo effect'ually block'd up by ſeveral Corps of his Majeſty's Forces, 'that there ſeems to be no Sort of Doubt of their be'ing obliged to ſurrender at Diſcretion. A few Hours 'before the Expreſs left the Army, one of our Parties 'had beat a Pruſſian Eſcort, and made themſelves Maſters 'of the Military Cheſt, in which were 30,000 Ducats 'in Gold.'

Berlin, December 15. The King, accompanied by the Prince of Pruſſia, the Margrave Charles, and Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick Wolfenbuttel, arrived here Yeſterday, at Four in the Afternoon. The two Queens received his Majeſty with the utmoſt Marks of Tenderneſs; and the principal Nobility repair'd to the Caſtle, in order to pay their Duty to his Majeſty. The Reigning Prince of Anhalt Deſſau commands the Army in Chief in his Majeſty's Abſence. As for M. Schwerin, he is certainly diſgrac'd, has ſold his Field Equipage, and is retired to his Eſtate. Our Military Preparations go on vigorouſly; and we begin to talk of publiſhing, ſpeedily, a Declaration of War againſt a certain Power.

Frankfort, December 16. The Members of the Aulic Council are moſt of them ſet out for Munich. All the Officers of the Court are about to take the ſame Route, and we expect ſpeedily to hear that the Dyet of the Empire will be transferred to Ratisbon. On the 13th of this Month there was a great Council held at Hanau, where the M. Belleiſle was preſent, as alſo Prince William of Heſſe-Caſſel; the next Day the Marſhal came hither to take his Leave of the Empreſs, and is ſince gone Poſt to Berlin, by the Way of Caſſel. The French Troops continue to advance this Way, and, if our laſt Advices from Paris be true, inſtead of 30 there will be 70,000 Troops in Germany before the End of the Year. The Miniſters of the Electors of Treves, Cologne, Mentz, Saxony, and Hanover, have preſented a new Memorial to the Dyet, in relation to the Winter Quarters of theſe Troops, conceived in ſtronger Terms than ever; at the Cloſe of which, they intimate the Neceſſity of forming a neutral Army for the Defence of Germany.

Paris, December 14. The Ducheſs de Chartreux is dead, and is ſaid to have left behind her above Three Millions; but her Duchy is once more united to the Crown. The King has made a Preſent to the Duke de Richlieu of 100,000 Livres, to indemnify him for the Expences he was at, in preparing for his Embaſſy to Spain. The Duke de Lauragais is on the Point of ſetting out for the Frontiers, in order to receive the Dauphineſs; a Detachment of the Life-Guards has already begun its March for the ſame Purpoſe. The Prince of Conti and M. Coigny are expected here To-morrow. The King has given Orders for repairing the Fortifications of Ypres, and has added Two-pence a Day to the Pay of the Soldiers in the Iriſh Regiments in his Service. Field-Marſhal Count Schmettau will, in a few Days, preſent a Memorial to his Majeſty; and will, at the ſame Time, have his Audience of Leave; the King of Pruſſia, his Maſter, having thought proper to recall him.

Bruſſels, December 17. The Archduchеſs Mary-Anne, only Siſter to the Queen our Sovereign, and Goverueſs-General of theſe Provinces, died Yeſterday about Noon, after an Illneſs of Two Months and Ten Days, aged Twenty-ſix Years, Three Months, and Two Days. Immediately after her Demiſe, a numerous Detachment of Dutch Troops occupied all the Avenues to the Palace. The Grief expreſſed by the People for the Loſs of her Highneſs is inexpreſſible.

Hague, December 18. The laſt Letters from Bohemia mention the King of Pruſſia's having entirely evacuated Bohemia, and Prince Charles's beginning to canton his Troops, in good Part, upon the Territory of the County of Glatz. Letters from Dreſden, of the 12th Inſtant, bring Advice of the Gariſon of Prague's being arrived at Gabel, on the Frontier of Luſatia, where it is ſaid to have been joined by another ſmall Corps of the ſame Nation; that they had demanded the Paſſage of the Court of Dreſden, and that the ſame had been granted them, on Condition of their laying down their Arms, which were at the ſame Time promiſed to be faithfully ſent after them; that the Pruſſians had refuſed theſe Conditions; that two more Saxon Regiments had been ſent into Luſace, to reinforce the Corps actually a-head of them there; and that the Chevalier de Saxe, with his Detachment from the Combined Army, was arrived within four Leagues behind them, ſo that we are very impatient here, to learn the Iſſue of this Affair.

HOME PORTS.

Portſmouth, December 17. Yeſterday ſailed from Spithead the following Men of War, under the Command of Admiral Medley, bound on a Cruize; viz. the Lenox, Monmouth, Hampton Court, Suffolk, Edinburgh, Prince Frederick, Sunderland, Faulkland, Dreadnought, and two Dutch Men of War. Remain at Spithead the Prince Royal, St. George, Princeſs Amelia, Wincheſter, Torrington, Shrewsbury, Scipio, and Ætna Fireſhips.

Dover, December 17. Wind S. W. Arrived the Elis, Francis, from Falmouth; and the Succeſs Privateer, Wilſon, from a Cruize.

Deal, December 17. Wind W. Laſt Night his Majeſty's Ship the Goſport, with the Ships for Mahon, ſailed to the Weſtward; with the Blacker and Fenwick, Kitcherman, and the Anne and Jane, Hammond, for New England. Arrived Yeſterday his Majeſty's Ship the Princeſs Louiſa from a Cruize, and remain with his Majeſty's Ships the Namure, Buckingham, Somerſet, Princeſs Louiſa, Warwick, Oxford, Exeter, Harwich, Angleſea, Shoreham, and Granado Bomb; the Willet, Griffith, and the Scrope, Conway, for St. Kitts; the Parham Club, Burton, and the Imley, Crump, for Antigua; the Pembroke, Herbert, for Nevis; the Richmond, Burn, and the Great Britain, Cruikſhanks, for Jamaica; the Expedition, Engliſh, from Maryland, who has loſt her Maſts. The Frances, Orman, from Briſtol, who drove out of the Downs, is well at Dover.

Arrived

At Virginia, the Carterer, Freind, from London.

At Hamburgh, the Clifton, Wadmor, from Briſtol.

At Glaſgow, the Mary, Turner, from Virginia; who brings Advice, that many Ships from London were arrived there.

At Briſtol, the Unity, Turner, from Barbados.

At Spithead, the Cleeve, Rice, and the Fly, Rickards, both from Falmouth.

1692

At Portſmouth, the Prince Frederick, Payne, from the Downs.

LONDON.

According to the laſt Advices from Stockho'm, the Count de Brenau is ſhortly expected there, with the Character of Ambaſſador Extraordinary from his Imperial Majeſty. It is ſaid, his Errand is to demand a Corps of 12,000 Auxiliaries: But it is thought his Negotiation will not be ſuddenly finiſhed, his Swediſh Majeſty being in a declining State of Health, ſo that, in the Opinion of every body, he cannot laſt long.

They write from the Hague, that private Letters from Vienna mention the Death of the Empreſs-Dowager, Mother to the Queen of Hungary and the late Archdutcheſs; which happened on the 10th Inſtant, of a Dropſy.

The ſame Letters ſay, that Prince Charles of Lorrain has made himſelf intirely Maſter of the County of Glatz; that the Inſurgents have entered Sileſia, and that, except the Cities of Breſlau and Neiſs, all that Country is again returned under the Obedience of her Hungarian Majeſty.

The laſt Letters from Bruſſels ſay, that the Hanoverian Troops have actually begun their March; and that an Army of 30,000 Men will be immediately formed in the Neighbourhood of Munſter.

They write from Hamburgh, that, according to the Liſts that have been publiſhed there, the Loſs ſuſtained by the King of Pruſſia, in the laſt Expedition, including the Dead, Priſoners, and Deſerters, amounts to 47,000 Men. The ſame Letters ſay, that Prince has recalled Field-Marſhal Schmettau from Paris, and Baron Wallenrod from Warſaw; and that an Edict has been lately publiſhed at Berlin, forbidding any Diſcourſe, good or bad, of what paſſed in the laſt Campaign, under the ſevereſt Penalties.

The Elizabeth, with about 700 Hogſheads of Tobacco, and ſome Copper, was carried into Nantz the 27th of Nov. O. S. As was about the ſame Time, into Port Lewis, a Ship, with about 500 Hogſheads of Tobacco; they both belonged to Boſton in New England. They were taken by Two Frigates belonging to Havre de Grace, into which Place they had ſent a Privateer belonging to Topſham, called the Induſtry, Capt. Robinſon. They had alſo taken Two Veſſels bound from Dublin to Lisbon.

The St. Joſeph Privateer, of St. Malo, lately ſent into Havre a Britiſh Snow of about 120 Tons, laden with Warlike Stores, and Clothing for Soldiers.

The Dryden, Knowler, for Lisbon, and the Feron, Surcliffe, from Jamaica, who drove out of the Downs, are got to Portſmouth.

The Swift, M'Cormack, from Belfaſt for Jamaica, was well at Barbados the 8th of September, and ſailed the next Day for Jamaica.

The Alexander and Anne, Child, from Lisbon for Philadelphia, is taken by the French, and carried into Marſeilles.

The Elizabeth, Damon, for Gibraltar, was run foul of by another Ship in the late Storm, and ſunk. The Crew were ſaved by the Ship that run them down.

Letters from America adviſe, that the Magazines belonging to the Britiſh Garriſon at Placentia, took Fire of a ſudden, and blew up.

On Sunday died, after a ſhort Illneſs, at his Houſe in Great Poultney-ſtreet, Cornelius Patoe, Eſq; a Gentleman of a large Fortune.

The Books of the Succeſs and Wolf Sloops are ſent to Portſmouth; the Company of the former to be paid to the 31ſt of December, 1742; and the latter to the 30th of June, 1742. The Company of his Majeſty's Storeſhip the Deptford, is alſo order'd to be paid at Portſmouth to the 30th of June, 1743.

By a Letter from Beccles in Suffolk, dated December 16 1744, we have the following melancholy Account; viz. That on Saturday laſt, one Farmer Dowſing of Henſted, near that Town, and his Son, about Eighteen Years of Age, being out a Shooting, the Son got through a Hedge, and the Father going to give the Son the Gun, in order to get through himſelf, it unfortunately went off, and ſhot him dead on the Spot.

It is added, that on Thurſday laſt, and the Night following, there was the greateſt Quantity of Snow fell that has been known in the Memory of Man for ſo ſmall a Space; and the Wind being very high at N. W. in a great many Places the Snow meaſured above five Feet deep. The Waters roſe ſo high, that the Southwold Poſt was obliged to go ſome Miles about the next Day.

The Lady Dolben, Relict of Sir Gilbert Dolben, Bart. died laſt Saturday at her Seat at Findon, near Welingborough, in Northamptonſhire, in the 83d Year of her Age.

Yeſterday the following Numbers were drawn Prizes in the State Lottery; viz. 41,349, 5000 l. 27,881, 5000 l. 57,137, 20,400, 13,118, 59,071, 100 l. each.

Whitehall, December 18. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint Jacob Wolff, Eſq; to be Conſul General for the ſeveral Parts of the Ruſſian Empire, wherein the Britiſh Subjects have Trade and Commerce.

This is to acquaint the Publick, that at

WHereas by an Eſtabliſhment, which has been long in Force in the Royal Navy, a Schoolmaſter is allowed to each of his Majeſty's Ships of the Third, Fourth, and Fifth Rate, with the Allowance of Midſhipman's Pay, and Twenty Pounds a Year beſides for his Encouragement; but an Opinion having prevailed of late Years, that ſince the Erection of a Royal Academy at Portſmouth, for Educating and Training up Gentlemens Sons for his Majeſty's Sea Service, the Eſtabliſhment of Schoolmaſters has been aboliſhed; which Opinion being hurtful to his Majeſty's Service, by preventing Perſons from applying to be employed in that Capacity, and thereby depriving the Youth, who ſerve on Board his Majeſty's Ships, of the neceſſary Aſſiſtance for perfecting themſelves in the Art of Navigation: The Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty think proper to order this publick Notice to be given, that the Eſtabliſhment of Schoolmaſters on Board the Ships of the Royal Navy is ſtill in Force; and that if Perſons properly qualified, by having paſſed an Examination at Trinity Houſe, will apply to this Office, they ſhall meet with all due Encouragement, and be warranted as Schoolmaſters, on board ſuch of his Majeſty's Ships as may be in want of them.
